North High Lites

By JOYCE MORRIS

The Scholarship Banquet, held in honor of the senior members of the Scholarship Society, May 7, was certainly a success. Entertainment such as Kip Whelan and Sandy Capelle posing as George Burns and Gracie Allen; Kip Whelan as the great Houdini, and Pat Bryden and Jay Lippman acting as Karl and Clara Voyant, the fortune tellers, made the evening very enjoyable.

A dance to "Two Lost Souls" was performed by Pat Kelly and Jeanne Knoblauch. Two charming can-can girls were announcers Linea Hileman and Jo Ainsworth.

A dinner with all the trimmings was served by freshmen members. The club sponsor is Richard Venturini.

Saxon trackmen qualifying for CIF championships are as follows: Nat Lining "A" 440 and 220; Ted Bluechel, "B" pole vault and broad jump; Don Fleps, "C" pole vault; Jerry Colen, "C" high jump and Ron Doyle, 3 min., 19.8 sec. 1320 at league finals for a fifth place.

Election time is here again, and everyone is making posters and speeches. A nomination assembly May 11, introduced the candidates to the student body. Student Council members enacted a little skit depicting the offices they hold.

The Lettermen vs. the Faculty in softball was the big activity for last week. Candidates for the 1961 Pep Squad will try out May 19 and 23, with at least 50 girls trying out for cheerleaders, song queens, majorettes and flag twirlers.

The International Banquet, which included French, Spanish and Latin Clubs, was held May 11. For variety of entertainment, there was a can-can dance, a fashion show, singing and a musical, "Holiday in Rome."

Stephen White Holds Dance Sports Night

Lower division sports night was held at Stephen M. White Junior High school Friday night.

Faculty sponsors were Gerry Yamamoto, Douglas Reed and Anthony Sokolic. Volleyball and other games were held in the gym and dancing was a highlight. The dance contest was won by Richard Wilmerly, Myra Puett, Gail Wadlow, Jimmy Noble.

Heading the door prize and sports knight committee dance were Richard Jones and Dorothy Cate.

Parents in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cate, Carl Beach, and Mmes. Hardy Ross, Ralph Calhoun, Edward Manis, Al Lowell, Edward Flight, John Faoluel, Henry Runge, and PTA president Mrs. Oscar Smith.
